ABOUT THIS COVER

The cover photo of Nimblewill Baptist Church was taken in early Sept. by the editor. On this trip I visited with several of the present members and was able to gather some information from the church records. The state of condition of the church is excellent; a credit to its membership.

It is my intention to change this part on the cover of each issue. If you have a picture you would like used, please send me a copy (not the original) and I will consider using it on a future cover. Pictures sent for this purpose will not be returned. It could be a picture of a person, or a group, church, house or other items that may be worthy or of historical significance. Let me hear from you. Editor.

Dear Member,

Reaction to the first issue of TGF has been great. My mailing list is very small at this time; so you can help with spreading the word. At the moment I have less than 50 paid subscribers so I need all the help I can get. I am sending it FREE to the Georgia Dept. of Archives and History, in Atlanta. If there are libraries to which you would like the newsletter sent, just give me a note. If I get 2 or 3 requests for the same library, I will consider sending it, provided the library will catalog it and make it available for public use. All subscriptions begin with the Jul-Sep issue. Anytime a subscription request is in the middle of the volume year, back issues will be sent. The early subscriber rate of $6.00 ended Aug 31, and 2 or 3 got in just under the wire. The $6.00 right now, is less than break-even amount. As the number of subscribers increase, the cost per issue will decrease. So if you know anyone interested, please give them my address. I will no longer send out the first issue free, as I did in the beginning.

Comments have been very good concerning the newsletter. I have heard from as far away as Texas, Iowa and Illinois. I will have ads, later in the year, in a national genealogical magazine. This will be helpful in both gathering new information, and serving a wider area.

I need to hear from you. Tell me what you want in TGF. Please tell me of any errors you note, even spelling errors. Above all, I need new information on Gooch history. I need stories of what you remember going to grandpa's house. Talk to the older members of the family. Tape them if you can. If not take notes. Since the first newsletter, I have met, through a tip from Jean Cheney Paradise, members of the Bartow Gooch family. As a result of that, I attended a reunion, where I met the 3 living children of Bartow G. Also many of his grandchildren and great grandchildren. With a little more research I will have that branch of the family most complete.

The last Gooch reunion at Suches was a good one for me and others. I was glad to see video cameras there in use. We need to take more still pictures too. Please take pictures of your loved ones. The older folks are usually more willing if you put children in the picture with them.

My offer still holds on copies of old pictures and original documents. I will be glad to cover costs of duplicating and mailing them. Let me know. Old church records are also valuable as a source of history. If you have any influence with any church dating back 50-60 years or more, please have the records copied and put in a safe place. Many old records have been lost when the house of a church clerk or secretary, burns. If the old records are bound they can be put in an appropriate library that has family history or genealogical sections. Baptist Universities usually want records of Baptist churches and so forth. I was able to use Nimblewill Baptist, Lumpkin Co. records recently to verify Samuel Gooch's death. Looking over the church membership, I learned that he and his second wife Caroline (Grizzle) were the only Gooches in the church at the time. Also found his and first wife Elizabeth's grave markers.

Remember, let me hear from you. Send names and addresses of any you think would enjoy TGF newsletter. Only those who subscribe will receive this and following issues.

Thank you.
Sincerely,
Cecil Daniels, Editor

NOTE ON COAT OF ARMS: The coat of arms, used on the first issue was one that came to me through correspondence. What I did not say, is that it is only one of many used by the early English Nobility. I have not counted, but there are probably 10 or 12 in print. It is not the intent of this newsletter to reprint that which is readily available in public libraries, except that part which will add to our own pursuit of linking it in family history. Anyone who would like to educate themselves on the subject of Gooch coat of arms and Gooch English Nobility, may visit any genealogical library and ask for Burke's, 'THE GENERAL ARMORY of England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales. It was first printed in 1884, but several impressions have followed. Thanks to Elvira (Gooch) Young for sending me additional material that came to her from another Gooch researcher.

UPDATE

Nimblewill Baptist Church is alive and doing well. During Labor Day week-end I was able to visit the church, take pictures and visit with 2 or 3 present members. I was able to establish through church records, that Samuel and his second wife Caroline were members in 1900. Even though his grave marker states D 1901, church records are very clear with a death notation of 1/9/1900. Then a follow up in church minutes and report to the conference Mar. 1900. so if you want to update FGS 293, page 4, in Vol. 1, No. 1, enter 1 Jan 1900, for Samuel Gooch death date, burial place, Nimblewill Bap. Ch.Cem. Lumpkin Co. Ga. Source is church records. I visited with James Cronan, who lives very near the church, and owns the property where the Gooch home site is located.

After finding the Samuel Gooch grave, I looked around for other Gooch graves. A few feet to the left of Samuel's grave is the grave of Elizabeth Gooch, his first wife. Her grave is marked with a slab of marble or sandstone, and is engraved with hand tools. 'IN MEMORY OF ELIZABETH GOOCH DEPARTED THIS LIFE NOV. THE 7, 1888, AGE 70.' I feel like Samuel himself did this soon after her death. Samuel's grave was marked with a similar but smaller stone, and engraved with hand tools, 'SAM H GOOCH D 1901'. I feel this was done by a family member several years after his death and erred in memory of his death year. So to update Elizabeth, enter 7 Nov. 1888, as her death date, buried at Nimblewill Ch. Cem. Lumpkin Co. Ga. Source, grave marker.

TAKEN FROM: FACETS OF GOOCHLAND COUNTY'S HISTORY

MIDDLE GA. REGIONAL LIBRARY-GENEALOGY SECTION-MACON GA.

Goochland Co. was named for Sir WILLIAM GOOCH, Lieutenant Governor of Virginia from Sep. 8, 1727 to June 20, 1749. To better know this great man for whom the county was named, here are several extracts of what has been said of Governor GOOCH:

In August, 1737, after GOOCH had served the Colony for nine years, the speaker of the House of Burgesses addressed him in terms of unqualified respect: "We have long experienced your love and good will to the people of this country and observe with what readiness you exhibit it upon all occasions. You have showed how easy it is to give universal satisfaction to the people under your government. You have not been intoxicated with the power committed to you by his Majesty, but have used it like a faithful trustee, for the public good and with proper caution. You never propose Matters, without supposing Your Opinion subject to the examination of Others, nor strove to make other Mens run blindly and implicitly to Yours."

Percy Scott Flippin says: "WILLIAM GOOCH, a native Englishman and former officer in the British Army*****proved to be the most successful and efficient executive in the history of the colony."

On November 14, 1746, WILLIAM GOOCH was created a baronet and in the following year was promoted to Major-General in the British Army. When GOOCH resigned his office as Governor of the Colony in 1749, because of ill health, it was to the regret of the colonists. He had been an able and energetic executive whose force was always tempered with tact. He died in Bath England, and was buried in Yarmouth. Sir WILLIAM GOOCH was survived by his wife. His only son, William had died in Virginia. Gov GOOCH, married Rebecca, daughter of ROBERT STAUNTON of Hampton, Middlesex, England. In her will Lady Rebecca, left to the College of William and Mary a large folio Bible, bound in four volumes, and a gilt sacrament cup, subsequently transferred to the Bruton Church. WILLIAM GOOCH was born October 21, 1681 - died December 17, 1751.

The family of the GOOCH name in Virginia are descendants from Lieutenant Colonel HENRY GOOCH who was living in York County in 1656 and was an adherent of Nathaniel Bacon, Jr., whose revolution took place in 1676. HENRY GOOCH was probably a member of Governor GOOCH'S family.

MEMBERS WRITE AND REACT TO FIRST ISSUE

Jean CHENEY PARADISE, daughter of Ada GOOCH CHENEY, reacted to query #2 putting me in touch with descendants of Bartow GOOCH, FGR 29, page 32. I was able to talk with Bartow's grandson, Grady GOOCH, and granddaughter, Frances TILLER GREENE. At Frances' invitation, I attended the TILLER reunion and was able to meet the three living children of Bartow and Mary GOOCH. They are: Alice GOOCH TILLER, Martha GOOCH YOUNGBLOOD, and Willie GOOCH. Alice lives in a nursing home in Griffin; Martha lives in Thomaston, with her husband Occie and Willie lives out from Buford. I also talked with a number of others who are descended from Bartow.

Jan MAGNESS BARRETT, Bedford, TX, who descended through Samuel and Eliz. (GRIZZLE) GOOCH. dau. Malinda Caroline GOOCH m. Fredrick C.B. MAGNESS, wrote about several queries.

On query #1, Part 1. She says Laura, dau. of Samuel and Eliz. (GRIZZLE) GOOCH married (Wm P.) Pink TURNER and had these children: Zue, Barney and Dolly Part 2. She says Mary Ann GOUCH m. Enos MAGNESS (Bro. of Frederick C.B. MAGNESS mentioned above). Mary and Enos are buried near Winder, GA in the Union Baptist Church Cemetery.

Part 3. "Samuel GOOCH who m. A.C. grizzle, was Tillman's son Sam. After first wife Betsy died, he married her niece Caroline. I believe that Caroline is the daughter of A.J. GRIZZLE, brother of Betsy. His name was Andrew Jackson. That Caroline is the only Caroline Grizzle of correct age and lineage that I have found".

On Query #5 Jan confirms what I have found since the first newsletter. Sam died Jan. 9, 1900. So his widow Caroline was alone when the census was taken. Jan says, "My great-aunt who died about 1985 at 101 also said that her grandfather Sam GOOCH m. her grandmother Betsy's niece, Caroline".

Jan goes on to give other information from her MAGNESS-GOOCH family tree. Sam's middle initial appears to be H. It is on his tombstone and on some legal records. Sam and Betsy GOOCH are buried in the Nimblewill Baptist Cemetery in Lumpkin County.

Sam and Betsy's daughter Malinda Caroline, mentioned above is buried in Concord Cemetery in Forsyth County GA.

Caroline (daughter of Tillman and Elizabeth GOOCH) m. _____ EUBANKS.

b. Zenia (or Venia) m. Gus CARTER

Their children were: Idell, Girl (died), Maybelle, Ruby, John and Junior.

2. Floyd Carter - had 5 or 6 boys and Willie.

REAMS, REAMES FAMILY AND ALLIED FAMILIES

Prop. of Genealogical soc. of Riverside Calif.

#2505 HENRY NORTH REAMS 1893-1945 m. MARY GOOCH, born 27 Feb. 1893 in
 Williamson Co., Tenn., Died 9 May 1945

In 1850 Tillman GOOCH had been gone from Georgia for about 12 years. The 1840
 Census showed him in Tishmingo Co. Miss. In 1843 records show him to be a JP in the same county. Jan Barrett of Bedford, TX was the first to report this information. To date, no later information has been reported. No report of his death or other activity has been noted.

The 1850 Census of Lumpkin Co. Ga. shows Tillman's family split into three households in the Yahoola dist.

Next issue I should have a complete work sheet on the above family and will be able to connect GRIZZLE families living in and around Dahlonge. I have an audio cassette (over 30 min in length) with Duffy GRIZZLE who died last year at age 95 plus. He descended from this family, as did Preacher Ed GRIZZLE who is in his late 80's, and lives out from Dahlonge. I am working with Lanell King of Dahlonge who is researching the GRIZZLES and KINGS.

Editor desires same on families of Martha GOOCH and Eli Justice, more correctly Justus. Need dates on them and their children. Martha is listed as child 8 on FGR 17, as noted above.

Query No. 15.

On a number of different occasions I have read reference to James (Jim) GOOCH FGR 1 Vol.1, No.1, as James Madison GOOCH. Question ? Does anyone have documented proof Madison is correct for his middle name? Not just hearsay or assumption. In the 1900 census he is listed as James M. GOOCH, Sr. His son Matt, FGR 17, page 17, Vol. 1, No. 1, is listed as George M. GOOCH. Jim's g. son James Martin, child 1 on FGR 2, page 16 of Vol. 1, No.1, is listed as James M. GOOCH, Jr. Does this indicate that Jim GOOCH has taken the middle name of Martin and considers himself a senior to his grandson ? Editor.

Query No. 16.

Editor would like to hear from descendants of Samuel Andrew GOOCH and Cansada GILREATH. They last lived in Madison Co. GA. Andrew and possibly Cansada are buried at Gordon's Chapel UMC, Madison Co. Editor.

Query No. 17. Oct. 12, 1991

Cecil Daniels
222 Alexandria Dr.
Macon, Ga. 31210

Dear Cecil

Enclosed please find a check for $9.00 for a subscription to the Gooch Family Newsletter. I will definitely want the issues that I have missed.

I am also enclosing a Family Group Sheet for my gr. gr. gr. grandfather, Liner Dixon Gooch. My line is through his daughter, Mary Susan Gooch Ball Grigsby. I am sending this because I am very much interested in making contact with anyone in this family who is also researching the family. I have a picture that I believe to be Mary Susan Gooch, and a descendant of Susan Ellen Gooch Ball has pictures of the Gooch family. We would like to definitely identify those in the pictures.

My line is: Lt. Col. Henry Gooch/Millicent Kinsey - William Gooch/Ursula Claiborne - Claiborne Gooch/ ? - Rowland Gooch/Unity ? - Liner Gooch/Rhoda Turner - John L. Gooch/Susannah Magill (McGill) - Liner Dixon Gooch/Lucinda Stevens - Mary Susan Gooch/Benjamin F. Ball - Amos Ball/Annie Potts Short - Frederick Palmer Ball/Elzada Mae Boyer - Maxine Ball/Harris Dark.

I am very pleased to find a Gooch Family Newsletter. Thank you for taking the time and making the effort to produce one.

Sincerely,
Maxine Dark

Editor's Christmas wish: For everyone who has promised to send something, to go ahead and do it. I will be putting issue no. 3 together early Dec. If you have anything that would add to the Gooch Family history, please send it ASAP. Would love to have copies of Bible records, marriage certificates etc. JCD.
